

mitArt Hotel and Café welcomes you to its new home. After ten years at Friedrichstraße; you can now find us at 139 – 140 Linienstraße.

The new location boasts 30 spacious and individually styled rooms with en suite facilities. mitArt is proud to offer its guests a quieter, more peaceful environment for an even better night's sleep! Spread out over three floors, the rooms feature exciting and original works from diverse international artists. The exhibitions change periodically over the year, constantly providing guests with new art experiences.

For non-smokers, we offer two completely smoke-free floors. Conveniently, all floors are accessible by stairs and elevator.

On the ground floor, mitArt houses its own organic café. Here you can savour our highly acclaimed breakfast buffet from 8:00-11:00, as well as light snacks and fresh baked goods throughout the day. Business guests and other guests with laptops may use the free facility to access the internet via WLAN (internet access point).

Situated in the very heart of Berlin, mitArt is in walking distance of some of the best street cafés, restaurants and bars. Here, you can find culturally diverse cuisines at an affordable price as well as a bustling night life.

To enjoy Berlin's booming cultural life, we recommend that guests visit the Museum Island, separated from Mitte by two arms of the Spree River. Here you can find the Pergamon, one of the world's richest ancient history museums. The Alte Nationalgalerie has received extensive renovation and is a must for 19th-century art lovers. Hamburger Bahnhof features Berlin's foremost collection of contemporary art, with a colossal 10,000 sm of exhibition space in this converted train station. Within 10-minutes' walk you can also find two of Berlin's three opera houses, the Komische Oper and Staatsoper.

Berlin generally benefits from warm summers, but temperatures can change quickly. Therefore, it is advisable to pack something warm to wear and a light raincoat alongside your sunglasses and lotion.

From all of us at mitArt, we hope to provide you with a most memorable and enjoyable stay in Berlin.

Your mitArt team

In 2005, we received the Viabono certificate, which guarantees top quality and professional service to the public.

In 2006, we received organic certification for our gastronomy.